

Composition-An important person

Situation:

A particular person has made a great impression on you

Task:

Write a story of about two hundred words telling about the person and the impression made.

In your composition, be sure to:

- name the people involved
- tell what happened
- organize what you write in an appropriate way