

Composition-Camp Counselor

Task:

You've seen an ad in the newspaper for a camp counselor at a nearby camp. You know that there will be many applicants for the job and recognize the need to make a strong, positive impression. Although you've never been a camp counselor, you have had other experiences which you think have qualified you for the job. Write to the employer persuading him/her to hire you.

In your assignment of at least 200 words, be sure to:

- include your opinion
- include two reasons
- support each reason with at least two details