

Composition-Cutting Class

Situation:

You are a student in a school where cutting class is a problem. However, you feel that your classmates do not realize the serious nature of the problem. You feel that the lack of awareness on the part of your friends and apathy in general are the causes of this problem. Write to your school newspaper persuading your fellow students to recognize the problem and do something about it.

Task:

In your assignment of about 200 words be sure to:

- include your opinion
- include 2 reasons
- support each reason with at least two details
